

Be an Elevance Health Actuary - 2025

Reason #1: Fortune 20 Health Company

- Dynamic, exciting industry. Elevance Health is on a mission to improve lives and communities and simplify healthcare.
- Large actuarial community with geographic diversity and many opportunities to learn and grow.
- Multiple nationally recognized awards for being a great place to work for gender, LGBTQ, and diversity equality.

Reason #2: Benefits & Perks

- Comprehensive benefit packages and annual bonuses, including paid parental leave and wellness time off.
- Actuarial Development Program - Support, rewards, and flexibility on your pathway to ASA or FSA.
- Wellness - Many Elevance Health office locations have fitness centers, cafés, and health clinics.

Reason #3: Culture

- Flexibility - Manage work/life balance with a casual dress code, flexible scheduling, and work-at-home options.
- Career Development - Elevance Health actuaries are helpful and friendly. Managers and mentors guide you to achieve career goals.
- Doing Good - Volunteer hours are matched with company donations. Give back to your community with paid volunteer time off.
- Office Social Events - Have fun and connect with coworkers to build meaningful working relationships.

Alex Wojciechowski U. of WI-Madison

2023 Actuarial Intern & 2024 Actuarial Analyst

During my internship, I was surrounded with great people. Elevance Health fostered a welcoming and supportive atmosphere, while providing me with meaningful work that was making a difference to my team. Through this experience, I was able to sharpen both my technical and professional skills while learning more about the actuarial profession.

Lauren Benning University of Tampa

2024 Actuarial Intern & 2025 Actuarial Analyst

During my internship, I gained countless opportunities to learn about the actuarial career and contribute to a variety of real projects that enhanced both my technical knowledge and were meaningful to the teams I supported. I was surrounded by actuaries and other professionals who were incredibly supportive, encouraged questions, and made learning a priority. My work and education felt valued, and the experience pushed me to become a better actuary, professional, and individual.
